

JERSEY PRIMARY FIGHTS NEAR END

Millionaires in Battle for Senate and Governorship Nominations.

G. O. P. CONFIDENT OF WINNING STATE

Democrats Split and Republicans Predict Martine Will Be Ousted.

Four millionaires and a comparatively poor man are wending up their fight for the Republican nominations for United States Senator and Governor in New Jersey.

The comparatively poor man who seeks the nomination for Governor is George L. Record. Even his own supporters admit sub-rosa that the returns on Tuesday night will give the nomination either to Austen Colgate or Walter E. Edge, his wealthy opponents.

Mr. Edge in a speech in Jersey City yesterday noon declared he would win on Tuesday by 50,000. Two hours later in Newark former Postmaster Frank J. Bock, one of the Colgate managers, said Mr. Colgate would win by 15,000.

But while the adherents of Mr. Colgate and Mr. Edge are strong in their claims for their leaders, the Republicans who have held aloof from any active part in the fight declare the race between Colgate and Edge is going to be so close that if odds were laid it would be even money.

Senate Contest Also Close.

The same, these men declare, applies to the fight for the nomination for United States Senator made by Franklin Murphy, former Governor, and Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, former State Senator.

Mr. Frelinghuysen, who is in the insurance brokerage business in New York City, is charged by his political foes with being a resident of New York. Mr. Frelinghuysen has countered with a denial.

The claims of the friends of Messrs. Murphy, Colgate, Frelinghuysen and Edge that they had the support of the state organization brought forth a disclaimer yesterday from Newton A. K. Bugbee, chairman of the Republican State Committee of New Jersey. But close observers of the situation insist that, for the most part, the support of the various county organizations has been given, either covertly or openly, to the candidacies of ex-Governor Murphy and ex-Senator Colgate.

On the Democratic side there is a four-cornered fight, not lacking in humor, being waged for the nomination of a United States Senator. The candidates are United States Senator Martine, John W. Westcott, Attorney General of the state; Frank M. McDermitt, a lawyer, of Newark, and August M. Bruggeman, of Hoboken.

Bruggeman is Discouraged. Mr. Bruggeman is manager of the Empire Theatre of Hoboken, a burlesque house. Incidentally, he is a German-American, with many friends among the hyphenates. Mr. Bruggeman will not get the nomination. That is conceded by Democrats, some of whom are mean enough to say that any vote Bruggeman gets will be a vote lost to United States Senator Martine, who is popular among the hyphenates, and a vote gained for his chief rival, Attorney General Westcott.

Mr. McDermitt discovered on Friday that in one county his middle initial had been omitted from the sample ballots, and yesterday he rushed post haste to Jersey City to protest against the failure of the printer of the sample ballots to add the designation "Democrat" to his name. "Errors of forethought" and "old political tricks" were Mr. McDermitt's characterizations of these typographical omissions.

The Democrats are united in their choice for the nomination for Governor, Otto Wittmann, former Mayor of Jersey City, being unopposed. But the Democrats admit he will have a hard time between Primary and Election Day, as the Republicans and Progressives are a practical unit.

Republicans See Victory.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

INVENTOR SUCCEEDS, DIES

James Maddison Had Just Perfected Device After Thirty Years' Work.

When he was about to reap the profits from thirty years of work in perfecting a screw machine invention, James Maddison, seventy-seven years old, of 496 Park Avenue, East Orange, N. J., died last night in the Orange Memorial Hospital from diabetes.

His son, Norman Maddison, died two months ago at the age of fifty-six. He had come from the West to assist his father in the invention work. Mr. Maddison had been a resident of East Orange for eighteen years.

ONLY WOMEN OF NOTE TO GO ON HUGHES TRAIN

Personnel of Party Those Who Have Aided Humanity.

It has been decided that "only women who have done something for the betterment of humanity" shall be included among the several hundred who will board the Hughes campaign train a week from tomorrow morning to begin a political pilgrimage across the continent.

They will assemble at the Hotel Plaza, where Mrs. Payne Whitney will be the guest of honor. There will be social workers, reformers, lecturers, writers and society women interested in the cause of humanity in the group that hurries away to the Grand Central Station. It has been the purpose of the invitation committee, composed of Mrs. Whitney, Mrs. Alice Longworth and Mrs. Mary Harriman Rumsey, to include only women of achievement in the number.

Among those on the train committee are Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Mrs. Arthur Capper, wife of the Governor of Kansas; Miss Maud Wetmore, Mrs. Daniel Guggenheim, Mrs. Gifford Pinchot, Mrs. George Partridge, of Minnesota; Miss Frances Keller, Mrs. Phoebe Hearst, Mrs. George Sutherland and Mrs. Edward Stotesbury. The speakers on the train will include Dr. Katharine Bement Davis, Miss Maude Miner, Miss Helen Todd, Miss Mary Dreier and Mrs. Raymond Robins.

CITY SUES AUTO OWNER FOR HURT POLICEMAN

Seeks to Recover Salary Paid Patrolman While on Sick List.

The City of New York, through Corporation Counsel Hardy, began a lawsuit in the Supreme Court yesterday. It is a test case to determine the right to recover for time lost by an employee of the city in the performance of his duty through the negligence of another person.

The defendant is Frederick S. Dudley, whose automobile knocked down and severely injured Patrolman James O'Connor. The policeman was on the sick list 140 days, in which time he drew $600 in salary. It is contended by the city that Dudley's automobile was recklessly operated and that the defendant is liable to the city for the salary paid O'Connor while disabled.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly indulging in vicious personalities.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY.

Giving the Democrats all the strength they mustered in 1913, when they put Governor Fielder in office, the Republican candidate for Governor this year will be elected by at least 8,000 majority, according to conservative Republican statisticians. They also declare Senator Martine will be defeated by a safe majority.

There is a great deal of bitterness shown in the contest between Senator Martine and Mr. Westcott. Each declares he is the choice of the Wilson administration, and on top of these indirect charges of untruthfulness the friends of the two candidates are constantly